Project: "Picnic Podium"

Date: June 2012

Location: London Pleasure Gardens, UK

Designer: Critical Architecture Network (CAN)

Description: A shock red tablecloth draped over an invisible podium formed CAN's response to the RIBA's PewPerches competition. The bench, created using CC13™, seemingly hovers above the ground. The bench was installed in London Pleasure Gardens for the beginning of the London Festival of Architecture 2012 and later made a permanent addition.
